

ONE KILLED, 15 HURT IN $500,000 FIRE

25 Buildings Swept by Flames at Venango Street Fer- tilizer Plant

SPECTATOR'S CAR HITS POLE

A half-million-dollar fire which began at 10:30 o'clock last night in the fertilizer plant of M. L. Shoemaker & Co., at Delaware avenue and Venango street, resulted in the death of one man and injury to fifteen others. Twenty-five buildings on the twenty-seven-acre tract were destroyed by the flames which still are smoldering.

The man who lost his life was a spectator, the Wickertman, of Kinsey and Tachavanna streets. He was fatally hurt in an automobile accident returning from the fire and died at 7:40 o'clock this morning in the Frankford Hospital.

Six spectators were hurt. The others injured were firemen. Firemen constantly risked their lives during the fire, but heroic efforts prevented the extension of a tank just beyond the fire, and containing more than 23,000 gallons of naphtha and kerosene. The flames of naphtha and kerosene and several feet of brickwork, and several hands by too close approach to the flames.

The fire, which swept the plant from end to end, damaging or destroying every building on its acreage, was the third the Shoemaker Company has experienced in fifteen years ago eight persons were killed and fifteen hurt in a disastrous fire. Forty years ago flames destroyed the plant.

Man Dies as Result of Crash
The fatality last night, though it did not occur on the fire grounds, was directly due to the fire. The ambulance which was speeding to the Frankford Hospital was speeding to that institution with an injured fireman. It made a sharp turn at Edmund and Octavia streets. Both the ambulance and the touring car in which the six men were riding. They were returning from the fire, where they had been spectators.

The automobile tried to negotiate the turn in the wake of the ambulance. The machine skidded, however, and crashed heavily into a telegraph pole, crumpling up and hurling out three of its occupants. They were rushed to the Frankford Hospital in the same ambulance with the injured fireman. There, Wickertman died this morning, and a second member of the party is in a serious condition.

The firemen injured are:
Lieutenant Schultz, of Engine Company No. 5, overcome by smoke.
Lattimer Steiger, of Engine Company No. 50, cuts on hand and bruises.
Herman Hutt, of Engine Company No. 50, cut and bruised by falling rear of the fire engine.
O. J. Neuner, bruises.
Patrick Murray, Engine Company No. 21, cuts and bruises.
Tom Brennan, 4731 State road, 2 cuts on hand and bruises.
Herman Hussman, 2056 East Lehigh avenue, Engine Company No. 6, injured leg.
Lieutenant George McDowell, Truck Company No. 18, cuts of foot and hand.
George Clark, of Truck Company No. 16, cuts and bruises.
George Weeks, Truck Company No. 1, burns of face and hands.

Three spectators injured are:
John J. Linaker, twenty-seven years old, 811 East Willard street, was scratched in face when a loose board of the force of the water seriously lacerated his nose and eye.
Mary Dzurill, forty-three years old, 210 East Monmouth street, fell from the high bank along the railroad. An old wound in the back of her head opened.
Alfred Atwood, 3210 Cedar street, blinded by smoke.

Those besides Wickertman who were hurt when the automobile struck the telegraph pole are John Dalton, driver, Kinsey and Gilliam streets, who may die.
James Eckarky, 1045 Orthodox street, cuts and bruises.

BOYS FLEE FROM GHOSTS

Young Horae Thieves Were Brave Until Nightfall Came

Eight Philadelphia boys, ages ranging from twelve to fourteen years, were arrested at Media early today, after being held until word is received from their parents. They are charged with stealing a horse and wagon here, owned by M. Bernan, 421 Bainbridge street.

The boys drove to Delaware County yesterday and arrived near Media last night. Discovering a corral they stopped the wagon, got some corn and potatoes and cooked their supper. They had intended spending the night in a cabin, the boys said, but they were afraid of ghosts, so they climbed in the wagon again and went to Media.

MAN EXCEEDS APPROPRIATION

State School Districts May Enter into Such Contracts

School districts of Pennsylvania have authority to enter into contracts for education and care of children in excess of the number provided for by appropriation to the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, Mount Airy, the Pennsylvania Institution for the instruction of the Deaf and Dumb, the Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind, Pittsburgh, and the Western Pennsylvania Institution for the instruction of the Deaf and Dumb, Mount Airy, says an opinion given to Commissioner of Public Welfare J. M. Balby by Deputy Attorney General S. M. McNeely.

"The institutions may accept other pupils if the expense thereof is provided from sources other than the regular appropriations," the opinion says.

FAMILY SEEKS AID HERE

Letter From Siberia Asks Jewish Society to Find Relative

A starving family in Siberia has appealed to the Jewish Welfare Society to help locate a relative in this city who left Russia thirty years ago. If this relative is not found shortly the entire family in Russia may perish.

The writer of the letter is A. Korobchik, who states that he and his family are in dire circumstances and that he depends on Joseph Lutzky or Lutz, who lives in this city, to come to his aid.

JOHN GRIBBEL WANTS FAIR WORTHY OF SPIRIT OF '76

Message Received Here Following Conference With Colonel D'Olier

Approval of a Sesqui-Centennial celebration worthy of the spirit of 1776 and the name of Philadelphia was expressed by Colonel John Gribbel in a conference with Colonel D'Olier, head of the Centennial Association, at Camden, Me. Colonel Gribbel is among other Philadelphians with whom Colonel D'Olier conferred in the New England territory during the last few days.

The following message giving Mr. Gribbel's views on the project was received at the Sesqui-Centennial headquarters here today:

"I have just had a conference with Colonel D'Olier here in which I said to him without reservation that Philadelphia was committed to a proper celebration in 1920 of the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. The President of the United States has set forth to Congress the propriety of Philadelphia being the place for such a celebration. Congress has agreed with the President and Pennsylvania has appointed a State Commission to cooperate in this patriotic privilege. The Mayor and Council of Philadelphia have endorsed the project and pledged the city's financial support. A proper celebration must be planned and held. The memorable years 1776, and 1787, and 1876 in Philadelphia's history must be followed by 1926, likewise made memorable."
